Northern St'át'imc communities have recently created the St'át'imc Education Institute (SEI) as a corporation dedicated to providing various post-secondary education programs. The SEI will have a board of directors responsible for providing leadership to the organization. This Call for Nominations seeks persons interested in serving as a director to support the success of this new entity by bringing their energy, experience, and ability to work in a team.

Nominations of interested persons may come from a St'át'imc member, St'át'imc community, or self-nominations. Nominations should be submitted to: Helen Copeland @ helencopeland77@gmail.com before May 13, 2021 @ 4:00 pm. Interested nominees should consult the Lillooet Tribal Council website for a complete description of criteria and instructions.
